

MSL
MAINE STATE LIBRARY

Friends
OF THE MAINE STATE LIBRARY
An independent 501(c)(3) organization

AUTHOR TALKS

at the MAINE STATE LIBRARY

July 19 5:30-7:30 pm	Retired Maine Game Warden JOHN FORD will speak of his continuing adventures with tales from his second book, This Cider Still Tastes Funny! Further Adventures of a Maine Game Warden , a collection of true tales, both humorous and serious, from the trenches of law enforcement, including heartwarming accounts of his rescues of hurt or abandoned animals.
August 9 5:30-7:30 pm	TESS GERRITSEN is a NYT bestselling author of suspense novels and medical thrillers. She is a Maine resident and strong supporter of Maine libraries. Her latest book is the Rizzoli and Isles adventure, Last to Die .
September 19 5:30-7:30 pm	JOHN W. NEFF , and HOWARD R. WHITCOMB will speak on their book Baxter State Park and Katahdin . Neff, a Katahdin historian, has served as president of both the Maine Appalachian Trail Club and the Friends of Baxter State Park. Whitcomb, a retired professor, is a published authority on Governor Baxter and the park's creation.

Sponsored by the FRIENDS OF THE MAINE STATE LIBRARY